

Exciting News from KnK Karts

Dear Karting Enthusiasts,

We are thrilled to bring you the latest updates from the world of KnK Karts as we kick off the month of March with a bang! From the launch of our revolutionary EK2-X electric kart, to our successful stint at IAAPI 2024, there's plenty to celebrate and share with our valued customers and supporters.

Experience the Thrill: Unleash the Power of the EK2-X Electric Kart!

Introducing the EK2-X Electric Kart:

We are proud to announce the launch of our newest innovation, the EK2-X electric kart in collaboration with ElettriCo, which took center stage at the IAAPI Exhibition 2024. Crafted with precision and passion, the EK2-X embodies the future of karting, offering unparalleled performance and eco-friendly operation. What's even more remarkable is that the unveiling of our EK2-X was conducted by the talented young enthusiasts of Rayo Racing, accompanied by Mr. Rayomand Banajee as our chief guest. It was an honor to have an esteemed personality at our event, further validating the innovation and excellence that KnK Karts stands for.

Revolutionizing Fun: Our Triumph at IAAPI 2024 Speaks Volumes!

Success at IAAPI 2024:

The IAAPI 2024 exhibition proved to be a monumental success for KnK Karts, serving as an ideal platform to showcase our commitment to excellence in the karting industry. The response from attendees was overwhelmingly positive, with many bookings made on the spot after experiencing the superior quality of our karts and the exceptional level of service we provide. We are truly grateful for the continued support and enthusiasm from our loyal customers and partners, driving us to greater heights of success. In a notable highlight, the stall welcomed the valued and cherished presence of Jamie Shaw, a distinguished race driver and instructor. Shaw's visit not only added prestige to KnK Karts' display but also provided an opportunity for insightful interaction, further solidifying the brand's position as a frontrunner in the industry.
